

INVESTOR ALERT

CONSIDERING AN INVESTMENT IN HURRICANE HARVEY RECOVERY?

- If you are considering an investment associated with recovery and clean-up efforts in the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey, or have already made such an investment, please contact our office at (225) 925-4660. This is especially important if you are experiencing any problems with the investment.
- You should exercise extreme caution if you are considering an investment offering that involves any of the following:
 - Mention of contracts or expected contracts with federal, state, or local governmental authorities that will aid the recovery effort
 - Claims that the company is providing technical assistance or expertise to federal, state, or local governmental authorities
 - Claims to have specialized equipment to aid in the cleanup or removal of hurricane-damaged property
 - Claims to have products or technologies that are effective in treating flood-related mold
 - Predictions of rapid, exponential sales growth
 - Pressure to invest immediately
- Before making any investment, please review our Investor Checklist, which is a guide to asking the necessary questions regarding the investment and the person selling it.
- You may also research the investment through the sources of information listed below:
 - Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) – www.finra.org
 - North American Securities Administrators Association (NASAA) – www.nasaa.org
 - Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) – www.sec.gov
 - Louisiana Secretary of State – www.sos.la.gov